

Choosing the Car Wash for You

Today there are many car washes for every individual need of the car owner. There are car washes that charges more than the usual ten dollars, if you want to pay top dollars for a car wash. Needless to say, these are the best ones around. For your Lamborghini or Ferrari, they are perfect. Yes, since you will have to pay around nine thousand dollars, they are more suited for luxury and exotic cars. For that kind of money, you will have to leave your car to the car wash for two weeks. It is like presenting your car with a two weeks vacation to a top resort. This is because for that amount and for that long, it includes a Pinnacle Miracle Detail, which has 61 stages. It will also have 4 layer wax treatment of Zymol Royale. The wax itself is about $13,000 per container so at least you know that you are getting your moneys worth. Of course your car will also have an indoor carpet shampoo and vacuum.

Now if you think it is crazy to pay $9,000 for a car wash there are still other car washes that can satisfy you. For a good car wash at a very reasonable price, there is the usual one stop auto car wash. You just have to find them. They will give you a good job and all you have to do is simply drive the car to the car wash. Today professional car washing includes technological system, solution and equipment. To keep you coming back, they guarantee an effective and safe car washing service. Some car washes have the high pressure wheel washing and total vehicle coverage. Some of the usual car washes also have the spay head which sprays concentrated blast of water. Then for the wheel washer, they have the rotating manifold for the front and rear tires. Compared with the drive way car and parking lot washing, they are more environmentally friendly. The reason is that car washes have waste water treatment facilities.

Now if you want to wash your car yourself, there are new and easier equipments you can use. The technology of locking the car wash and the car wax is not found in the latest sponges in the market. They make sure that your car has about right washes and waxes in less time. Whatever you choose, there is certainly a perfect car wash for your car. More [Best car wax ... Automobile ...
